OUTCOME TRENDS

Increased Social-Emotional Skills

- Based on survey responses, YOR is having a positive impact on many social-emotional skills. For example, respondents agree that because they came to YOR, they are better at listening to other people (88% completely agree or sort of agree), they make better decisions (83%), they are better at setting goals (81%), and they are better at solving problems (85%). These percentages are relatively consistent with findings from last year.

Increased Resiliency

Solid trends from the previous three years (89%, 92%, 93%), 90% of this years' students agree coming to YOR has helped them feel better about themselves and 85% agree that they feel better about their futures.

Increased Academic Success and Achievement

- 86% of respondents agree that coming to YOR has helped them do better in school as well as try harder in school (84%). Additionally, 78% of respondents agree that coming to YOR has helped them more easily see themselves graduating from high school.

Increased Post-Secondary and Career Readiness

- A majority of respondents (80%) agree that they have a better understanding of what it means to work as an artist because they came to YOR. Also, 73% of survey respondents agree they are more prepared to go to college or vocational school and 68% agree they are more likely to attend college or vocational school because of YOR.

Increased Economic Stability

This survey reveals that 78% of respondents are more confident in their ability to find a job and 82% are more aware of careers that interest them because of attending YOR.

WHAT DO YOU LIKE BEST ABOUT COMING TO YOUTH ON RECORD?

IF YOU COULD CHANGE 1 THING AT YOR, WHAT WOULD IT BE?

Most students said they wouldn't change anything about YOR

Some participants shared that if they could change something, they asked for more - more booths, more instruments, and more creative freedom.
